- Connect with potential mentors.
- Learn from local and global energy leaders.
- Contribute to shaping Namibia's energy future.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

This program is open to:

- Students, recent graduates, and young professionals in the energy sector.
- Individuals aged 18–35 studying or working in energy-related fields.
- Passionate individuals looking to expand their knowledge, networks and leadership skills.

WHY APPLY?

- Gain exclusive access to industry leaders and networking opportunities.
- Learn about Namibia's energy sector and its potential to become a regional energy hub.
- Position yourself for future success as a leader in the energy industry.

Application Question

Namibia's Founding Father, Dr. Sam Nujoma, envisioned energy independence, education, and economic self-sufficiency as critical pillars for national development. His leadership laid the foundation for a thriving energy sector that prioritizes the empowerment of Namibians.

Building on this vision, how can Namibia leverage its resources, partnerships, and innovation to become a leading energy hub in the region? Which aspects of Dr. Nujoma's legacy inspire you the most, and how do they align with your own aspirations for shaping Namibia's energy future?
